

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

Based on the results of the study, it can be concluded that 97.28% students stated that BBC Learning English is a very good application in improving their English skills and it has characters in the form of contains videos, contains reading scripts related to the topics provided, contains vocabulary, and contains quizzes. BBC Learning English provides interesting programs and it provides a variety of interesting and up-to-date topics. With the programs provided by BBC Learning English, such as; Grammar, Vocabulary, Pronunciation, Daily practice, and more; Students can improve their English skills. BBC Learning English is a suitable medium for learning English, especially in improving students' reading skills.

97,85% students stated that the topics provided in BBC Learning English Application are varied so that they can increase reading interest. By providing videos and scripts according to the topics discussed, it can make it easier for students to read and understand the content. BBC Learning English provides quizzes in every content. The quiz is very helpful for students in understanding each video and script that is presented so that they are careful to work on the quiz. Students stated that BBC Learning English really helps students in critical thinking because they read and do every quiz provided in it.

5.2 Suggestion

After conducting the research and getting information about students' perception towards BBC Learning English Application and the student's perceptions towards BBC Learning English Application in improving of students comprehend in reading texts, the researcher would like to suggest students to explore and combine BBC Learning English Application and other application and social media especially the social media applications that mentioned by students (YouTube, Instagram, and WhatsApp) as media in their classroom and learning English.

However, before including social media in the classroom, the teacher must be equipped with knowledge about social media and spend much time to prepare students in using social media for learning. Next suggestion is addressed for students who are the user of application and social media to be more considered and wise to use social media not only for their pleasure but also for learning. Last, the researcher would like to suggest further research to explore more impact of BBC Learning English Application on specific English skills.