CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusion

After analyzing the data, the conclusion about this study was made. The conclusion about the realization of what are the types and functions of taboo words found and used in the Birds of Prey (and the Fantabulous Emancipation of One Harley Quinn) movie can be described as follows:

1. There four types of taboo words found and used by the characters in Birds of Prey (and the Fantabulous Emancipation of One Harley Quinn) movie. All four types of taboo words that consist of epithet, profanity, obscenity and vulgarity appear in the movie. The highest frequency of the types of taboo words is obscenity. The lowest frequency is obtained by profanity. Obscenity becomes the most appear types of taboo words in the movie because it can be the most effective way to draw attention. Also, because the words shit and fuck that belong to obscenity seem to be everyday expression nowadays.
2. There are four functions of taboo words that consist of: to draw attention, to be provocative, to show contempt, and to mock authority. Based on the analysis, there are only three functions appear in the movie, except to mock authority. This function occurs when people utter taboo words because they are not satisfied with public images such as the government and institutions. Therefore, they utter taboo words that are directed to mock authority in order to show their disbelief about governmental stuffs. Unfortunately, there is no dialogue or conversation that consist this kind of function. Therefore, there is only three function of taboo words found in Birds of Prey (and the Fantabulous Emancipation of One Harley Quinn) Movie, namely: to draw attention, to be provocative, and to show contempt. To draw attention to oneself appears as the most frequent function to happen in Birds of Prey (and the Fantabulous Emancipation of One Harley

Quinn) movie. It occurs a lot because it can represent the speaker's intention of using taboo words which is to get respect and attention of others.
