

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, two parts are presented, conclusion of the research and the suggestion related to the research. The conclusion provides the answer of the research question and the research findings and discussion. While the suggestion presented the recommendation for further studies on using Pixton (comic) to improve students' writing skill in Senior High School.

A. Conclusion

Based on the result of the study, it was concluded that using Pixton (comic) to improve students' writing skill at XI MIPA 4 in SMAN 1 Sedayu was effective. By providing comic, students were motivated to put their thought into writing. This was supported by score results in pretest, post-test cycle 1 and post-test cycle 2 which was significantly different. Also, from the score of creating comic assignments where all students passed the minimum achievement criteria. The use of comics also assisted the students to express their ideas and raise their interest when writing in English. Moreover, students were more active to ask question related to the topic since comic provides image that can broaden their imagination and students will be easier to dig more ideas to put into their writing.

B. Suggestion

There are several suggestions presented in this study. The suggestions are for students, teachers, and further researchers.

1. For students

Since Pixton (comic) can improve students' writing skill in English, it is suggested for XI MIPA 4 students of SMAN 1 Sedayu to read English text through comic, so they can increase ideas to write an English text.

2. For teachers

In teaching writing skill, teachers are required to deliver the material in fun and interesting way to attract students' interest in learning how to write English text. Hence, it is suggested for English teachers to use Pixton (comic) as the teaching media in order to catch the students' interested. Nevertheless, it is needed to make sure that the comic is relevant with the learning material.

3. For further researchers

Because this research found that Pixton (comic) can improve students' writing skill, it is recommended for further researchers to apply this technique in increasing students' writing ability.