Dear Editor,

Herewith I would a request to be re-emailed my article review results entitles : "Analysis on the Advanced Learners' English for Specific Purposes Learning Using Video Blog" completed with the URL of the review result, since it was accidentally deleted and it is crucially needed as one of the demanded requirements to propose promotion. So please cordially re-email it through this email address.

I am also still waiting for the hard copy mailing. Thank you in advance for your kindness to help me.

Best regards,
Hermayawati
